SHIPPING NOTES.

S. S. City of Sydney, H. C. Dearborn, commander, discharged Sydney pilot Nov. 23, 3.30 p. m.; first 48 hours fine weather and heavy northerly swell; then came on to blow from south-east; soon increasing to a heavy gale, with very rough seas and heavy swell, which continued to Auckland. Received Auckland pilot 1.50 p. m. on the 10th, same date 8.18 p. m. discharged pilot; had light baffling winds and smooth seas, until afternoon of 10th, 8.12 south, then heavy northerly with rough sea, for 24 hours; thence to port strong north-east trades, very rough seas, and heavy swell. Received Honolulu pilot Nov. 23rd, 9.25 p. m. 10 cabin, 42 steerage passengers and 150 tons of freight, and $982.25.00 treasure for San Francisco. The following are the local consignees: Order, Hollister & Co., J. C. Kenyon, Mrs. Balmer, Freeth & Peacock, W. Woodruff.

The S S City of Sydney arrived last night from the Colonies with 15 bulls, 6 horses, 9 mares, 660 hides, 2 pelts, 403 tins, 277 bags of wool and 2190.47 in specie.

The sailing of the bktne Ella has been indefinitely postponed to await a full load of sugar.

Schr Rob Roy brought 420 bags of sugar and 60 bags of rice. The captain claims that he beat the schooner Domitila on her last trip to Koolau by six hours.

The bark C R Bishop is docked at the main dock.

A portion of the cargo of the bark Martha Davis is for Hongkong. She will sail for that port about December 5th.

The bktne Discovery sails to-morrow for San Francisco with about 7,654 bags of sugar, 665 bags of rice, 700 bunches of bananas and 100 bbls of molasses.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

GREAT activity is reported in the volcano.

The Lyceum interior is being renovated.

The Intermediary Court will meet on Friday.

The Honolulu Rifles meet at the armory this evening at 7.30 o'clock, to drill preparatory to the 28th.

As we go to press Mr. Freeth's house at Waikiki is on fire. The owner is absent at Kaneohe, and his partner, Mr. Peacock, has hurried off to the burning house.

Misses Kate Lewis and Nettie Andrews have resigned their positions as teachers in the Royal School, and are succeeded by Misses Annie S. Walker and Helen Ladd.

This morning Mr. J. Williams photographed the winning crew of the senior six-oared race in the last regatta, the picture being one of the promised prizes in the contest.

Mr. J. T. Waterhouse has hired the Pacific Navigation Co.'s new warehouse, Queen street, for a month, to store a large quantity of merchandise received by the bark Martha Davis.

A NATIVE named Kala, living on the Palama road, was arrested last night by Officer Tell, for having opium in possession, three small tins of the drug, with pipes, etc., being seized.

CHARLEY the lookout after keeping awake and watching for the expected steamers for more than 38 hours, had just closed his eyes for a short snooze last night when the S. S. City of Sydney's lights became visible.

MINISTER Merrill's proclamation of Thanksgiving Day, mentioned yesterday in advance, appears in this issue. Doubtless, as usual, the rest of the public will join heartily with the American residents in observing the day.

The trade sale of boots and shoes at Lyons & Cohen's saleroom to-day was a successful one. Honolulu tradesmen were left behind in the bidding, the greater portion of the goods going to country dealers at fair prices.

This evening the Y. M. C. A. gave a reception in their hall to the crew of H. B. M. S. Constance. The members of the Association, with their lady friends, are requested to be present. A musical and literary programme will begin at 7.30.

Mr. Lyle, of the Marine Railway, was the first to report the City of Sydney. He saw the reflection of her lights in the sky a few minutes before the masthead light appeared, and reported the steamer to the Central Office of the Bell Telephone Company at nine o'clock.

The S. S. Zealandia, of the Direct Line, is expected here from San Francisco for Sydney, on or about Thursday next. The S. S. Alameda, of the Oceanic-Union Line, is likely to be here on Saturday, bound for Auckland and Sydney. The Union Company's new steamship Mararora, of 5,000 tons, is expected to leave Sydney, Dec. 3rd, on the new mail contract service, for Auckland, Honolulu and San Francisco.

The Marquis of Feano, a member of the Royal Geographical Society of Italy, arrived per City of Sydney, with the intention of visiting the Volcano and of passing several weeks in these Islands for scientific purposes. The Marquis has recently visited New Guinea and the various groups of Islands in the South Pacific, and his previous voyages, under the auspices of the above society, extend over large parts of Africa and Asia but lately become known.

MELANCHOLY TRAGEDY.

The horrifying news was telephoned to the BULLETIN from Kaneohe, on the other side of the island, this morning, that C. Larish, manager of the Pauoa plantation, had committed suicide. He shot himself in his own room between nine and ten o'clock last night, and his dead body was discovered there about midnight. His motive appears to have been to avoid the shame of meeting his wife in a contest before the court at Kaneohe to-day. The pair had a quarrel a few days ago, and the difficulty was to have been settled, if possible, before the magistrate this morning. An inquest is being held this afternoon.

POLICE COURT.

TUESDAY, Nov. 24th.
Kala was fined $50 and sent over two months, for having opium in possession. Geo. Kawai was sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor three months, and Maria Kaele (w.) fined $25, for adultery.
